

Answer the questions below after watching and following along with Mega Ran’s Artist Residency.

“Introvert Bars”	“Language Arts”	“The Randalorian (This is the Way)”
An introvert is someone who is shy. Would you consider yourself an introvert? Why or why not? The opposite of an introvert is an extrovert—someone who is outgoing or not so shy. What qualities do you think make someone an extrovert?	How would you introduce yourself in a rap song? Write 2–4 lines to lyrically introduce yourself to someone new. Mega Ran would perform “Language Arts” for his students on the first day of school. What are some things you could do to make a good impression on others you meet for the first time?	Think about a show, movie, or character in pop culture that you are passionate about. What scenes, lines, or music would you sample to artistically represent the subject? Using one of the samples Mega Ran played, or a different song with samples, compare and contrast the original sample to the flipped version. What original elements remain in the flipped version?
“Infinite Lives”	“World Tree”	What questions do you have for Mega Ran or the performers? What questions do you still have about hip hop?
Mega Ran talks about living forever through his actions and art. Can you think of someone, living or dead, who appears to have an “infinite life” based on their actions and/or art? What does having “infinite lives” mean to you?	The lyrics to “World Tree” include some of the elements of hip hop. Which of the 5 elements resonate with you the most? If you were to design your own hip hop world tree, which of the 5 elements would be included in the roots based on what you’ve learned?

Answer the question below after watching and following along with Mega Ran's Artist Residency.

Elements of hip hop develop on the East Coast and become popular across the country on the West Coast.

Late 1970s–1980s

Hip hop is born in the Bronx, New York City.

1973

Popular culture is expressed through dance moves and freestyle hip hop.

1980s–1990s

Hip hop continues to evolve. Artists like Mega Ran mix hip hop with other elements of popular culture, like video games.

2000s and beyond

Mega Ran mixes video games and hip hop. What part of your life would you mix with hip hop?